Bio Cleanse[®]

Digestive support through cleansing*

When your busy lifestyle leaves little time and energy to focus on things like a fiber-rich diet and regular exercise, it can take an unwanted toll on your digestive tract. No one wants to be caught off guard or slowed down by occasional bloating, irregularity, and discomfort. Bio Cleanse provides the support you need to help keep your digestion on track.

3 Key Things to Know:

- 1 Gentle formula that contains a unique combination of magnesium and citrus bioflavonoids to help manage those days when you feel irregular and uncomfortable.*
- 2 Magnesium draws water into the intestine, increasing fluidity and creating a gentle stimulation effect.*
- 3 Part of the Plexus TriPlex™ system, which helps weed out unwanted microbes and intestinal yeast that take up space from beneficial microbes.*

Features:

- Citrus bioflavonoids comprised of: hesperidin (from orange), orange peel powder, lemon peel powder, and quince fruit powder.
- No artificial colors.
